On Being a Star

There are hundreds of stars new ones each day
All of them lead to the manger.
We begin small and helpless a little piece of clay but we grow.

The Potter works at the wheel
The Potter wants us to become stars.
We become stars
by following stars
In the eyes of those who cannot see
We are fools
to follow any star
But for those with Christmas-eyes
We are wise.

Light shining on light.

Of God's radiance

we all have had a share.
Why else did Jesus come except to light a path for us to heal what is frightened in us and to be a star?

But we aren't used to stars like this

We aren't used to stars who are born in a stable and hanged on a cross.

We aren't used to stars that shine in places we'd rather not look.

We aren't used to stars who propose things that don't make sense like losing our lives, and turning the other cheek and being poor for the sake of some unknown Kingdom.

I hope a star comes out for you today A new one that you've never seen before.

I hope it's bright and bold

A prophetic star, piercing your darkness and helping you to see the things you really need to see.

I hope it touches you with fire
and runs along beside you all year long.

This star!

Oh, how I hope it comes Leaping
Laughing
Bounding
Burning
Singing
Shining
in your life!

And when the year is through I hope this star keeps shining on in you For without a doubt you are someone who's called to be a star.

A prayer for the new year

Lord, in this new year which we have begun, may we have enough happiness to keep us agreeable, enough trials to keep us strong, enough sorrow to keep us human,
enough freedom to keep us happy, enough failure to keep us humble, enough success to keep us eager, enough wealth to meet our needs, enough faith to banish depression, enough hope to look forward, enough love to give us comfort, and enough determination to keep us going.
