Glenamaddy Community Development Company received first prize in the Tuam Electoral Area at the County Heritage Awards 2007 .
Presentation of awards took place in the Claregalway Hotel on Tues 28th August. The award was given in recognition of GCDC's effort in the conservation of heritage and local history in the Glenamaddy area through the delivery of a local history programme and also through the instigation of a project involving the mapping and recording of cemeteries in the parish. 'The Cemetery Project' is being developed in partnership with Galway County Council, Galway Rural Development and the parishes of Williamstown and Ballymoe.

Glenamaddy Ladies Football Club

Well done to our U-16 girls who booked their place in the county U-16 championship semi-final with a convincing win over Mountbellew last Tuesday by 8-15 to 2-9. They now play Annaghdown.
Our Junior team beat St. Gabriel's in the county A semi-final 4-12 to 2-7 and play Milltown in the final today, Sunday 9th, at 12.30pm in Monivea. It is part of a triple-header with the intermediate final Ca-herlistrane v Grainne Mhaols at 2pm and the senior final Corofin v Killanin at 3.45pm. Please come and support. Admission €10 adults. €5 for students/O.A.P.'s and U-16's free. We need your support as this is the first time we have reached an adult county A final.
Thanks to our main sponsor P.J.Fahy for his generous sponsorship of hoodies for this final and his cash donation to the club. It is very much appreciated.
