On Rolling Stones Away

And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen.

They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" But when they looked they saw that the stone—which was very big—had already been rolled away.

(Mark 16: 2-4)

Where are my stones?
What are their names?
Would I know them
if I met them face to face?

And if the empty tomb
I stood in front of was me
would I call it death?
Or would I call it resurrection?

My heart beats out the answer
much clearer than I live it.
O happy emptiness!
It's what I need a lot of
to be full.

Rolling stones is what it's all about
but Resurrection is another name.

The call continues.
We are called to help others experience Resurrection
to help them break out of their tombs.
Of course, that means we'll have to break forth
from our own tombs first.

We'd look kind of silly preaching
from the inside of our tombs, wouldn't we?

East Galway School of Music

Congratulations to Rebecca Fitzpatrick who recently entered the Siemens Feis Ceoil in Dublin on Trumpet. Not only did she win her competition class (the under 17's), for which she won a Silver medal, but she is also to receive the David Leonard Rose Bowl for being awarded joint highest marks in the whole Brass Competition. Congratulations also to her teacher, John Fleming.
