Well done to Hannah Dolan and the Galway Senior Ladies on their win over Laois last Saturday. They play Cork next Saturday in the quarter final in Dr. Hyde Park, Roscommon at 6pm.

Good luck to Larry Cunningham, Patricia Keady, Niamh Fahy and Eilis Gannon in the All Ireland U-16 final with the Galway team on Sunday 17th August at 2.45pm in Kilmallock, Co. Limerick.

Love Finds a Way

Love finds a way home.
Nothing, but nothing can restrain its desire to be at the heart of everything.

Into our resentment and our hate, into the cancer of our self-neglect
love finds a way.

Into our pride and our unbelief, into the clots of our constraints
love finds a way.

Into our guilt and our shame, into the paralysis of our fear
love finds a way.

Into our defences and our knots, into the scar tissue of our self-hate
love finds a way.

Into our mania and our make-belief down through the tunnels of our escapes
love finds a way.

O yes, love finds a way in where love has been locked out for love is a fire, love is a blade, love breaks open our hearts to each other
- and stays.

For a Mother

Mother,
Your voice learning to soothe
Your new child
Was the first home-sound
We heard before we could see.

Your young eyes
Gazing on us
Was the first mirror
Where we glimpsed
What to be seen Could be.

Mother,
Your nearness filled the air,
An umbilical garden for all the seeds
Of longing that stirred in our infant hearts.

You nurtured and fostered this space
To root all our quietly gathering intensity
That could grow nowhere else.

Mother,
Formed from the depths beneath your heart,
You know us from the inside out,
No deeds or seas or others Could ever erase that.
