On Tuesday night last 23 people were trained in CPR/AED in Ardeevin School. This course was outstanding as felt by all who attended. A further 24 people will be trained on this Wednesday 26th March at 7pm sharp. All those people who gave their names to do this course would they please confirm by Monday that they will be in attendance on Wednesday evening to either Breda 9659388 or Gail 9638991. This will be the last course arranged at the moment and there are lots of people from outside the Ardeevin catchment area interested but we want to give priority to the people of the school catchment area. Later we will make available all the people who have completed the course and also the exact whereabouts of the Defibrillators should they be needed.
