A sincere thanks to all the people who assisted us in the running of this year's Summer Festival—we couldn't have done it without you. Thanks to all who supported our endeavours—you made it all worthwhile. It's onward and upwards from here on!

Lord Jesus Christ, if we have looked or longed for an easier gospel,
a lighter cross,
a less demanding Saviour, then turn our eyes and avert our longing from what we want to choose to the one who has chosen us.

Forgive our unfaithfulness, and, for our better living, give us not the remedy we desire tomorrow, but the grace you offer today.
Amen.

Our Father

Our Creator in heaven, may your name be held holy, in children, in homes, in schools, in communities, in workplaces.

Your reign come, more and more, in our hearts, in the hearts of children, women and men, old and young.

Your will be done throughout the universe in rain forests and ghettos, in deserts and slums, here and there.

As it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, the bread of your body, the bread of truth to this generation, the bread of hope to those without it.

And forgive us our failings, our coldness, our indifference, our insincerity, our impatience, our not caring,

as we forgive those who hurt us, and lead us not into temptation, help us to resist the temptation to judge, the temptation to count the cost, the temptation to fear failure, the temptation to selfishness, and above all, the temptation to have a closed mind.

But deliver us from evil, the evil of closed eyes and hearts, the evil of abuse of others, the evils of pollution, of war, of sexism and of racism, the evil of all that separates us from you and from one another.

Amen
