God in an Apron

Supper was special that night
There was both a heaviness and a holiness hanging in the air
We couldn't explain the mood
It was sacred, yet sorrowful.
Gathered around the table eating that solemn, holy meal seemed to us the most important meal we had ever sat down to eat.

We were dwelling in the heart of mystery
Through dark of the night Hope felt right as if something evil was about to be conquered.

And then suddenly the One we loved startled us all He got up from the table and put on an apron.
Can you imagine how we felt

God in an apron!

Tenderness encircled us
as He bowed before us.
He knelt and said,
"I choose to wash your feet because I love you."

God in an apron, kneeling
I couldn't believe my eyes.
I was embarrassed until his eyes met mine.
I sensed my value then.
He touched my feet
He held them in his strong brown hands
He washed them
I can still feel the water
I can still feel the touch of his hands
I can still see the look in his eyes.

Then he handed me the towel and said
"As I have done so you must do"
Learn to bow, learn to kneel.

Let your tenderness encircle everyone you meet Wash their feet not because you have to,
but because you want to.

"There are so many feet to wash"
I keep saying.
"No" I hear God's voice resounding through the years
"There is only my feet
What you do for them
you do for me."
