Glenamaddy Ladies Football Club

Congratulations to our intermediate team who continued their winning streak with a good win over Grainne Mhaols in the championship last Monday. They play Sean O'Heslins (Leitrim) in Ballinamore at 11am today Sunday 10th in the Ladbrokes.com Connacht league, and play Caltra in the Junior A county league at home on May 17th

Our U12s & U14s lost their league game against Kilkerrin/Clonberne last week. U14s play away to Naomh Mhuire at 7pm on Monday; U12s are away to St. Brendan's. Ballygar on Tuesday at 7pm.

Our U16s start their league with an away game against St. Brendan's on 13th May. Well done to Lorna Fallon, Niamh Fahy, Claire Gibbons and the Galway U16 county team on their 6-12 to 1-3 win over Mayo in the Connacht championship. Also, well done to team manager Larry Cunningham and selector David Brady—both from our club. Their next match is at home against Sligo on May 20th. Please support.

Padre Pio Devotions on Wednesday at 8pm

Collectors

We could do with some more collectors at the weekend Masses. Please give your name to any member of the Pastoral council

The Sharpened Chill, the Flower Strewn Tomb

The sharpened chill, the flower strewn tomb,
the early morning light,
the heavy stone had rolled away,
the women scared, scared, took flight.

What happened in those latter days to loosen fear tied tongues?
We only know grief turned to joy and laughter filled their lungs.

Their utter grief was real enough,
the record rings as true,
and only time will tell if grief can change for me and you.

That is our hope. but faith is hard to grasp, or reconcile with all that life has brought our way,
and joy is not our style.

Come to the centre of our pain and sow the seeds of praise,
that, not denying anything,
your love might calm our days.
