Child of Wonder

My bare feet walk the earth reverently

For everything keeps crying -

Take off your shoes

The ground you stand on is holy

The ground of your being is holy.

When the wind sings through the pines

Like a breath of God

Awakening you to the sacred present

Calling your soul to new sight

Take off your shoes!

When the sun rises above your rooftop

Colouring your world with dawn

Be receptive to this awesome beauty

Put on your garment of adoration

Take off your shoes!

When sorrow presses close to your heart
Begging you to put your trust in God alone

Filling you with quiet knowing

That God's hand is not short to heal you

Take off your shoes!

When a new person comes into your life

Like a mystery about to unfold

And you find yourself marvelling over

The frailty and splendour of every human being

Take off your shoes!

Take off your shoes of distraction

Take off your shoes of ignorance and blindness

Take off your shoes of hurry and worry

Take off anything that prevents you

From being a child of wonder.

Take off your shoes;

The ground you stand on is holy.

The ground you stand on is holy.

To be a child of wonder is to cherish the truth that space and time are holy. Most of all it is to be alive to the holy ground on which we stand and to be the holy ground that you are.

Next Sunday is Mission Sunday

Next Sunday marks the annual worldwide Catholic celebration of Mission Sunday, the theme for which is Reach Out. Our prayers and donations on Mission Sunday help to support mission projects and allow Catholic communities worldwide to become self-sufficient and progress according to their own needs and traditions.

Next Sunday's collection is for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, in aid of the Church's mission activities.
