Recovery for Today Programme

Talk on Tuesday next 4th May in Glenamaddy Community Centre 9pm-10pm.

This talk will be given by a number of recovering drug addicts as to the danger of class A drug abuse and the so called legal Head Shop highs.

The group will also speak about their own experience and how drug addiction brought them to criminality, prison, homelessness, treatment centres and also the pain they caused to their family and loved ones.

The facilitator of the group will also speak about the number of young people who were affiliated with the group that have died through drug dependency. (Comments from last talk given in Gleason's Hotel for anti head shop committee) "This talk certainly needs to be listened to by all young people and also parents. It was a real eye-opener."

The Cinemobile will be returning to Glenamaddy from Saturday 1st May to Monday 3rd May. Screenings include: Nanny McPhee; Crazy Heart; Shutter Island; Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel; Kick-Ass; The Lovely Bones; and Alice in Wonderland.
