Child Safeguarding – Update

Over the past two months over 90 priests of the Tuam Archdiocese and 10 lay people, parish representatives have updated their training in Child Safeguarding Training. Courses were organised by the diocesan training committee and were under the supervision of the HSE. The training was offered over three separate courses. Two more courses will be offered in Spring of 2011.

A Progressive 25 card game will take place in Gortaleam N.S. on Wednesday November 24th at 8.30pm. This game is in aid of school funds

Glenamaddy Community Games

The Glenamaddy Community Games AGM was held on Thursday 28th Oct at 8.30pm in Glenamaddy Community Centre. Following a very successful year in 2010 the current committee were stepping down due to other commitments and also to make way for new people to get involved. Regrettably, no people other than the existing committee turned up so a new committee could not be formed. Glenamaddy, therefore, will not be able to affiliate to the Community Games organisation for 2011. If anyone is interested in forming a committee or would like to get involved please contact the County Chairman, Vincent Conway, at 086.2152385 or 093.49014 or www.communitygames.ie
