Prayer

Lord Jesus,
You were sent by the Father
to gather together those who are scattered.
You came among us, doing good and bringing healing, announcing the Word of salvation and giving the Bread which lasts forever.
Be our companion on life's pilgrim way.

May your Holy Spirit inflame our hearts, enliven our hope and open our minds,
so that together with our sisters and brothers in faith
we may recognise you in the Scriptures and in breaking of bread.

May your Holy Spirit transform us into one body and lead us to walk humbly on the earth,
in justice and love,
as witnesses of your resurrection.

In communion with Mary, whom you gave to us as our Mother
at the foot of the cross,
through you,
may all praise, honour and blessing be to the Father in the Holy Spirit and in the Church.
Now and forever. Amen.

In the present financial and industrial unrest we might consider...What If God went on Strike?

It's just a good thing God above has never gone on strike,
Because He wasn't treated fair for the things he didn't like.
If he had ever once sat down and said "That's it, I'm through I've had enough of those on earth so this is what I'll do.
I'll give orders to the sun "Cut off your heat supply".
And to the moon, "Give no more light" and run the ocean dry.
Then just to make things really tough and put the pressure on I'll turn off air and oxygen till every breath is gone.
You know He would be justified if fairness was the game
For no one has been more abused or treated with disdain.
Thank God - and yet he carries on supplying you and me
With all the favours of His grace and everything for free.
Men say they want a better deal and so on strike they go,
But WHAT A DEAL we give to God for everything we owe,
We don't care who we hurt or harm to gain the things we like,
But what a mess we'd all be in if God should go on strike.
