Parish Pilgrimage to Croagh Patrick

A special word of thanks to all who climbed Croagh Patrick on Saturday last for our annual Parish Pilgrimage. A great day was enjoyed by all - especially those who climbed it for the first time - well done! Fr. Paddy read Mass on the summit at 1.30 and it proved to be a busy day on the Reek as this was the third Mass that was celebrated that morning. All enjoyed a lovely cuppa and get together afterwards and thanks to Tommy Forde our driver who brought us all home safely.
