Christmas is a time for Love

Christmas is a time for Love, a time for Joy and Peace,
 A time to trim the Christmas Tree and a time to stuff the geese.
 It's a time when we can come together, however far or near,
 To shed a little hope into a world of sorrow and fear.

Yet Christmas could be all year 'round, if only we would try,
 To gently wipe an old man's brow or soothe a baby's cry.
 If we could smile throughout the year as we do on Christmas Day,
 Just think what happiness we'd shed along life's weary way.

To give a gift of Hope to one who otherwise has none,
 To be a Friend to somebody whom everyone else has shun.
 To be Forgiving of our faults, and of our sisters and our brothers,
 To Live in Peace and Harmony with ourselves and with each other.

Ah, don't you see that Christmas is more than opening up the gifts,
 It's more than singing Christmas Carols and rolling in big snow drifts.
 It's a feeling that can stay with you throughout each day, all year,
 And all it takes is a loving heart.....and a sensitive little tear...

REMINDER by lighting the night light around 6pm we will create a 'circle' of prayer and will be united in 'lighting the way' for Christ into our homes this Christmas.

CHRISTMAS DECORATING of the church will take place on Sunday next 23rd at 3pm. We invite people to come along and help with the decorating and putting up of the crib as many hands make light work.
