The World We Make

*We make the world in which we live
by what we gather and what we give,
by our daily deeds and the things we say,
by what we keep or we cast away.
We make our world by the beauty we see
in a skylark's song or a lilac tree,
in a butterfly's wing, in the pale moon's rise,
and the wonder that lingers in midnight skies.
We make our world by the life we lead,
by the friends we have, by the books we read,
by the pity we show in the hour of care,
by the loads we lift and the love we share.
We make our world by the goals we pursue,
by the heights we seek and the higher view,
by hopes and dreams that reach the sun
and a will to fight till the heights are won.
What is the place in which we dwell,
a hut or a palace, a heaven or hell,
we gather and scatter, we take and we give,
we make our world—and where we live*

My Father when I was.....

- 4 years old My Daddy can do anything.
- 5 years old My Daddy knows a whole lot.
- 6 years old My Dad is smarter than your Dad.
- 8 years old My Dad doesn't know exactly everything.
- 10 years old In the olden days when my Dad grew up things were sure different.
- 12 years old Oh, well naturally, Father doesn't know anything about that. He is too old to remember his childhood.
- 14 years old Don't pay any attention to my father. He is so old fashioned.
- 21 years old Him? My Lord, he's hopelessly out of date.
- 25 years old Dad knows a little bit about it, but then he should because he has been around so long.
- 30 years old Maybe we should ask Dad what he thinks. After all, he's had a lot of experience.
- 35 years old I'm not doing a single thing until I ask Dad.
- 40 years old I wonder how Dad would have handled it. He was so wise and had a world of experience.
- 50 years old I'd give anything if Dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.
