A Colourful Contribution

The Black man

When I'm born, I'm black.

When I grow up, I'm black.

When I get sick, I'm black.

When I die, I'm black.

And you, white man

when you are born, you are pink.

When you grow up you are white,

When you go out in the sun you turn red.

When you get cold you turn blue.

When you die you go purple.

And you have the cheek to call me

Coloured !

Please Do Not Litter Our Parish

TOMORROWS

Why do you fret for tomorrow?
Why are you heavy with care
Wrapping your heart in sorrow
A garment too sombre to wear!
Faith has a brighter colour
Hope has a rainbow hue
And trust links them both together
In a background of heavenly hue.
You can weave these lovely colours
Into a garment so light
It will penetrate every shadow
And shine through the darkest night
God will take care of tomorrow
With him each tomorrow must rest-
And we hold this a sure conviction
When we give each today our best!
