What a win!

Unbelievable! Congratulations to the girls of Glenamaddy Community School who were victorious in the All-Ireland Junior A Final beating St. Paul's High School, Bessbrook, Armagh by 5-20 to 8-9 after extra time. This was an outstanding game that went to and fro with fantastic football from both sides and it will remain in the memory for many a day to come. Congrats to the girls, management team, teachers, students, parents, supporters. A great day!

Fr. Paddy!

As the Glenamaddy 52nd Annual Theatre Festival concludes and in a parish where drama plays a significant role, it was decided to dramatize the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday at 8pm in Glenamaddy church. It is hoped that the visual impact of this production will help people to appreciate ever more firmly the greatness of God's love for us. People are invited to experience this inspiring and moving drama with family and friends in the middle of our Holy Week celebrations.

GLENAMADDY COMMUNITY SCHOOL Congratulations to our Junior Girls on winning the All Ireland Title. They had a marvellous victory over St. Pauls Bessbrook in the All-Ireland Final on a score of 5-20 to 8-9. The teams were level at the end of normal time. The lead changed many times during the game. Glen CS just got over the line by 2 pints at the end of the game after extra time. Thanks to all the parents and supporters who attended in great numbers. Thanks also to all who helped out on the day. Well done to John Kennedy, Brigid Fallon, Patricia Keady and James Daignan the Team Management. Our Junior Boys had a 5-11 to 1-11 victory over Cuala in the ¼ final of the Connacht Colleges. The School Gym has now closed until September. Thanks for using the facility and we would like to see more people use it in September.
