'Grandparents are Treasures'

If you attended Mass last Saturday night in our Church you would certainly believe that 'Grandparents are Treasures' with the wonderful turn out for this celebration. A huge and heartfelt thank you to Fr. Paddy for making us once more aware of the important role grandparents play in our society. Thanks to all in any way who helped to make this celebration so meaningful esp.:- playschool & primary school children & teachers, parents and families, the adult choir, the generous ladies who added to the celebration with their home-baking, Children's Liturgy leaders and the Pastoral Council who organised the hall & refreshments. Thanks to the local press and radio for all the coverage.

May our grandparents be blessed.
