CHURCH WEBSITE www.glenamaddychurch.ie: NEWSLETTER newsletter@glenamaddychurch.ie

Hello God!

Hello God! I called tonight
To talk a little while....
I need a friend who'll listen,
To my anxieties and trials...
You see, I can't quiet make it through a day just on my own
I need your love to guide me,
so I'll never feel alone.
I want to ask you please to keep my family safe and sound.
Come and fill their lives with confidence,
for whatever fate their bound.
Give me faith, dear God, to face
each hour throughout the day,
and not to worry over things,
I can't change in any way.

I thank you God, for being home,
and listening to my call,
for giving me such good advice,
when I stumble and fall.
Your number, God, is the only one that answers every time
I never get a busy signal, never had to pay a dime.
So thank you God for listening,
to my troubles and my sorrow.
Goodnight, God, I love you, too,
And I'll call again tomorrow.

How to know when you are getting old?

Everything hurts. What doesn't hurt, doesn't work.
The gleam in your eye is the sun shining through your bi-focals.
You feel like the morning after, but you haven't been anywhere.
You get wind playing cards. Your children look middle aged.
You join a health club, but don't go.
You have all the answers, but no one asks you the questions.
You look forward to a dull evening.
You need glasses to find your glasses.
You turn out the light for economy, not romance.
You sit in a rocking chair, but you can't make it go.
You sink your teeth into a steak and they stay there.
Your house is too big, but the medicine chest is not big enough.
Your birthday cake collapses from the weight of the candles .
