Vigil

What would I do, O Master,
if you came slowly out of the woods.
Would I know your step?
Would I know by my beating heart?
Would I know by your eyes?
Would I feel on my shoulder too, the burden you carry?
Would I rise and stand still till you drew near or cover my eyes in shame?
Or would I simply forget everything except that you had come and were here?

Bread for Life

Be gentle when you touch bread.

Let it not be

Uncared for - unwanted.

There is so much beauty in the bread.

Beauty of the sun and soil,

Beauty of the patient toil.

Winds and rain have caressed it,

Christ often blessed it.

Be gentle

When you touch bread.

-My heart is like an empty basket

Turned completely upside - down,

Stretching and straining with anxious hands

To grasp the gracious gift of grain.

-Lord, take me in your healing hands,

When evening falls in a lonely place

Turn me right side - up again

To cherish the scraps with an open heart.

Bless me with the gift of common sense

Of sight and smell and touch and taste,

That I may garner every grain of truth

As seeds of love and thanks -

Your Holy Eucharist.
