THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

God's Holiday

God decided to take a holiday and sought advice as to where he could get away from the demands of the people. One angel suggested he go to the top of the highest mountain on earth but the other angels thought this a bad idea since people climb the mountain regularly these days. Another suggested the depths of the sea but again that was rejected because people could find him there. Another suggestion was to hide on the far side of the moon but human beings are even now going to the moon. Then a wise and trusted angel said quietly: 'Go and hide in the human heart – people will never dream of searching for you there.' We travel long distances to find God unaware that God is with and within us.

PARISH OFFICE open on Mondays and Fridays 10am-12pm. Please use the office during these hours to book Masses, Baptisms, Weddings or all general enquiries and to enquire about records. Please telephone (094) 9659017 or email newsletter@glenamaddychurch.ie. Deadline for newsletter 10am on Friday mornings. Mass cards available during office hours.

CONGRATULATIONS to Thomas Curtin, Kiltullagh and Ann Marie Sirr, Ballymoe on the occasion of their wedding.

PRIEST'S SUMMER COLLECTION thanks very much to all who contributed so generously to the collection towards the priest's wages.

The Host with the Most

Which one are you? It's such a familiar story. Think of the last time you had friends or family over for a meal or a gathering. Were you more of a Mary or a Martha? Many of us fall more easily into one category than the other – the 'host with the most' who is always up to their eyes with the cooking and catering and table clearing; or the chatterer who is happy to leave the washing up until later? At face value, I don't think Jesus is saying we shouldn't be hospitable and look after our guests, offering them food or drinks. Like many, I really feel for Martha in this story. She had welcomed Jesus into her home, was looking after him and busying herself with serving him, while her sister was too busy listening to Jesus to offer help. It is no wonder that Martha complained. After all, someone had to do the practical work. Martha may have wanted to spend time with her guest too – but then, who would have served him? The key is in Jesus's words. He does not criticise Martha for her efforts, but rather gently rebukes her for 'worrying and fretting about so many things'. She is so distracted and bogged down in her work that she has forgotten to spend time with Jesus. This is familiar territory for many of us. We are often distracted and busy. Do we make space to sit at the Lord's feet and listen? Can we take time each day, perhaps, for a Scripture reading?

GENTS GAA Well done to Cormac Haslem and Sean Raftery & the Galway Minor team that won the Connacht Final on Sunday last beating Mayo 1-9 to 0-6 & to Terence Morgan who is part of the management. Congrats to McDara Geraghty who played for the Galway U16 Ted Webb team on Friday last. Best of luck to the Galway senior team in the replay v Roscommon tomorrow. Glenamaddy/Glinsk under 14 had a great win in the championship beating St Gabriels in Kilconnell 2-11 to 1-4. The under 16 team play Claregalway in the North Board final on Tuesday next in Tuam Stadium at 8pm. Under 8/10 training on Monday at 7pm. The Kellogg's Cul Camp will take place at the pitch from 2 to 6 of August, bookings can be made online at Kelloggsculcamp.gaa.ie. Cul Camp is open to all children age 6-13. Club membership is now overdue and all teams will be contacted to finalise membership. Congratulations to Thomas Curtin and Ann Marie Sirr on the occasion of their marriage.
