The Good by Brendan Kennelly

"The good are vulnerable
As any bird in flight.
They do not think of safety,
Are blind to possible extinction
And when most vulnerable
Are most themselves.
The good incline to praise,
They have the knack of seeing that the good is not destroyed
although forever threatened.
The good go naked in all weathers,
and by their nakedness rebuke
the small protective sanities that hides men from themselves.
Always they retain a kind of youth.
The vulnerable have the grace of any bird in flight,
Content to be itself,
accepting what the earth or sky intends.
I think I know one or two among my friends".

Wisdom: "A truth that's told with bad intent beats all the lies you can invent."
