ABOUT ENCOURAGEMENT

If with pleasure you are viewing,
Any work that I am doing,
If you like me or you love me,
Tell me now.
Don't withhold your approbation,
Till the Father makes oration,
And I lie with snowy lilies oe'r my brow.
For no matter how you shout it,
I won't care too much about it,
I won't see how many tear drops you have shed,
If you thinking some praise is due me,
Now's the time to slip it to me,
For I cannot read my tombstone
When I'm dead.

There are people who have a steady flame
Shining from deep inside them
This flame is not extinguished
When others criticise or ignore them,
For it is not dependent on what others think of them;
It is what they think of themselves with a quiet certainty.
Each of us can behave in either of two ways:
We can behave like a sinner or a saint.
We help people more by giving them
A favourable image of themselves
Than by constantly harping on their faults
The saints hold up a mirror for us.
In this mirror we get a most favourable image of ourselves.
We see what we are capable of.
All we need is the will to walk
In the light of what we have seen
