When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with their flocks,
the work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost,
to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry,
to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people,
to make music in the heart.

Give

Of all the public places, dear to make a scene, I've chosen here.
Of all the doorways in the world to choose to sleep, I've chosen yours.
I'm on the street, under the stars.
For coppers I can dance or sing.
For silver-swallow swords, eat fire.
For gold-escape from locks and chains.
It's not as if I'm holding out for frankincense or myrrh, just change.
You give me tea. That's big of you.
I'm on my knees. I beg of you.
