The Apostolate Of Smiling

Just a little smile on your lips; Cheers your heart; Keeps you in good humour; Preserves peace in your soul; Promotes your health; Beautifies your face; Induces kindly thoughts; Inspires kindly deeds.
Smile to yourself until you notice that your constant seriousness, or even severity, has vanished. Smile to yourself until you have warmed your own heart with the sunshine of your cheery countenance. Then go out and radiate your smile. That smile has work to do for God:
Smile on the lonely faces; Smile on the timid faces; Smile on the sorrowful faces; Smile on the sickly faces; Smile on the fresh young faces; Smile on the wrinkled old faces; Smile on the familiar faces of your family and friends—let all enjoy the beauty and inspiring cheer of your smiling face.
Count, if you will the number of smiles your smile has drawn from others in one day. The number will represent how many times you have promoted contentment, joy, satisfaction, encouragement, or confidence in the hearts of others. These in turn always give birth to unselfish acts and noble deeds. The influence of your smile is spreading though you do not always see the wonders it is working.
Your smile can bring new life and hope and courage into the hearts of the weary, the overburdened, the discouraged, the tempted, and despairing.
Smile at God in loving acceptance of whatever He sends into your life.
