Lord, in our parish cemeteries, we remember those who have gone before us. Their courage, commitment, generosity and hard work built this parish in harder times. We appreciate what they have given us, the great legacy bequeathed us.

Let us in our own day Lord, continue to create a parish and place that is fitting and safe for new generations of your people.

As we look back in appreciation, We look forward with hope.

Be with us on our way Lord, so that our steps lead to you.

For them, and for ourselves, we pray. Amen.

Families from 116 countries are set to descend on Dublin for the WMOF2018 Festival of Families event in the presence of Pope Francis in Croke Park.

Organisers released final details of the programme this week. The line up includes a cast of thousands and features community based artists as well as some well known local and international artists including Nathan Carter, The Riverdance Troupe, Dana Masters, Daniel O'Donnell, The Begley Family, The Priests, The Holy Family Deaf Choir and Deaftones, Celine Byrne, Paddy Moloney, Bridgie and Missy Collins and Moya Brennan. The selection of themes and artists featured in the event reflect many of the priorities in the ministry of Pope Francis including homelessness and those on the margins; migrants and refugees; care for our common home and the importance of the family. Pope Francis will deliver an address to the families in the stadium and will hear five family testimonies, one from a family living in Ashbourne. The testimonies will be shared by families from Ireland, Canada, India, Iraq and Africa. The themes of the family testimonies will focus on: forgiveness in family; strength in family; hope in family life; the inter-generational nature of families today and the impact of technology on family life.
