LENT & TRÓCAIRE

The girl on the front of this year's Trócaire box is called Patricia. Names like Patricia and Patrick are popular in Uganda because of Irish missionaries who work there. During Lent, we ask you to bring home a Trócaire box and please support the appeal. This year, the appeal puts the focus on the plight of people forced to leave their land. They are left without homes and livelihoods. Patricia's family lives on a small piece of land with two traditional huts. One hut is used for cooking and sleeping, the other for storage. The roof is thatched and needs to be changed every three years. Patricia lives with her mother, sister and two brothers. Her father died in 2011. Patricia and her family are vulnerable people. They live in a community where land is frequently stolen by corporate land grabs, by war or because they are women. Trócaire, with your help, supports these families in their need.

My life is but a weaving between the Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colours,
He worketh steadily.

Oft-times he weaveth sorrow,
and I, in foolish pride forget he sees the upper,
and I the under side.

Not till the loom is silent
and the shuttles cease to fly, shall God unroll the canvas
and explain the reason why.

The dark threads are as needful,
in the weaver's skilful hand,
as the threads of gold and silver in the pattern he has planned.

He knows, he loves, he cares – nothing this truth can dim;
He gives the very best to those who leave the choice to him.
