Transformation at Cana

The changing of water into wine

Is a symbol, a wonderful statement
of what Jesus is all about.

When the wine runs out, Jesus steps in.

Why does He do this?

Because He wants so much to show us:

how lavish and generous is His help;
how literally overflowing is His kindness;

how much He wants to enliven our spirits;
how much He wants to inebriate us with His love.
He changed beyond recognition the lives of those who came in contact with him.

Lord, touch our hearts with your love.

Satisfy out thirsty souls with the wine of gladness.

Strengthen our wills with your grace
so that we may persevere in goodness and in your mercy bring us to the wedding feast with you in your kingdom.

GLENAMADDY CREDIT UNION AGM will be held on Thursday next in Williamstown Parochial Hall at 7.30pm. We are pleased to report that the performance of the Credit Union in 2018 has been strong. The key highlights are: loan book growth of €1.3m; a surplus of €96,895 and a productive year for ongoing lending, with annual advances exceeding €4.1m. This represents excellent progress in furthering the Credit Union's strategic aims of growing the loan book and maintaining a healthy level of capital reserves. The surplus delivered in 2018 added to the Credit Union's capital strength and provides a robust position. A free raffle will be held For all members in attendance at the AGM.
