MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS

Tonight before falling asleep think about when we will return to the street. When we hug again, when all the shopping together will seem like a party. Let's think about when the coffees will return to the bar, the small talk, the photos close to each other. We think about when it will be all a memory but normalcy will seem an unexpected and beautiful gift. We will love everything that has so far seemed futile to us. Every second will be precious. Swims at the sea, the sun until late, sunsets, toasts, laughter. We will go back to laughing together. Strength and courage. See you soon!

PARISH OFFICE is closed. For any queries/Mass booking etc please phone Breda on (087) 2805241.

Characteristics of the Christian way of facing the Covid-19 crisis:

The first is the move from “I” to “we”. This is a frightening situation that we face together. The common good — the good of us all — must be given first place; within the common good, we will find our own good. That is a very Christian, even a very Catholic virtue.

The second is an attitude of concern and compassion. Even if we must be isolated in our own homes or workplaces, modern communications allow us to stay in touch in a way impossible before. This is a great benefit. But, we need to choose to stay in contact, perhaps with a greater frequency so that people don't feel abandoned.

The third is a respect for truth. In recent years, the truth has suffered in public discourse, giving rise to a horrible expression, the post-truth era. In these days, we need to pay attention to science and medicine and less attention to opinion-makers and rumours. A society without truth cannot last. Today, right now, we need truth more than ever. Lastly, as Christians, we can pray.

We can pray in particular for scientists, medical personnel and politicians. These are wonderful people with a huge job of work before them. As we pray for ourselves and our families and friends, we pray too for all who look after the common good.

Dr. Kieran J. O'Mahony OSA

Corona Virus—Parish information

In the light of the recent directive from the government, we are obliged to comply with the following regulations:

We must reduce social contact to help slow down the spread of the virus. To that end—

1. All parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend Mass.
2. The community can remain spiritually united through Mass each morning (Monday-Friday at 10am) 7pm Saturday and 10.30am on Sunday morning. All available on parish local radio.
3. All assemblies, gatherings, meetings, baptisms, weddings, are postponed until further notice.
4. We will keep you updated on future developments. During this time, we will keep one another in prayer and watch out for our neighbours.

WEEKEND.
