Blessed are the hungry they shall get their fill
 It is in our emptiness that we are filled.
 It is in our confusion that we are guided
 It is in our weakness that we are strengthened
 It is in our sins that we are forgiven
 It is in our hunger that we are fed
 We believe that God has a homeland prepared for us where all our hungers will be satisfied and all our hopes will be fulfilled.

This conviction makes it possible for us.
 To travel onwards with an ache in his heart and an unquenchable longing in our souls.

PARISH OFFICE is open to the public. Parishioners who wish to book Masses, require Mass cards or have any other query are asked to please call or phone the office (094) 9659962 between 10am-12 noon Monday, Tuesday or Friday. Queries by email can be sent to glenamaddychurch@gmail.com. Notices for newsletter can be emailed to newsletter@glenamaddychurch.ie. Deadline for notices are 10am on Friday morning.

PARISH EXAM TREE

Please write the name of a student who is sitting their Leaving Cert or doing any examinations at this time. Place the name tag on the tree located at the Baptismal Font in our church. Those listed will be prayed for at all our Masses until the end of June.

WE WELCOME into the Christian community James Joseph Farrell, Stonetown and congratulate his parents Jennifer and Justin.

COMMUNION CALLS available now on request. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like a visit from Fr. Eugene.

EUCCHARIST IS HOSPITALITY The hospitality of God is at the heart of the Eucharist. There is a place for each one of us at the Lord's Table. There are people who come to Mass who will only experience God's hospitality if they experience ours. People need to feel the welcome of those who are sitting beside them. It is really wonderful to experience the hospitality of God. It is to discover what God is like. That we are wanted and welcome, helps us to discover what we ourselves are like. Are we carriers of God's hospitality?
