Prayer when Visiting a Graveyard

May perpetual light shine upon the faces of all who rest here.
May the lives they lived unfold further in spirit.
May all their past travail find ease in the kindness of clay.
May the remembering earth mind every memory they brought.
May the rains from the heavens fall gently upon them.
May the wildflowers and grasses whisper their wishes into light.
May we reverence the village of presence in the stillness of this silent field.

Thursday 25th 7.30pm: Mass for all those who died in the past year.

NOVEMBER: A TIME TO REMEMBER.

Each year, our church in its wisdom, sets aside the month of November as that special time in our year when we are asked to remember and pray for all our departed loved ones. It is a time of year when nature itself is preaching its own silent sermon about the end of things. The trees are almost bare, the weather is getting colder, the nights are long and most growth has ceased. As another year in our lives is drawing to a close we reflect on the changes that have taken place in our lives. We are also mindful that the Covid pandemic has had a major impact on all of us and perhaps changed the way we view our lives and what we now regard as most precious for us. For some of the families in our parish it is sadly the loss of a loved one that impinges most. When we remember our dear departed loved ones, especially in November, their names, personalities and stories live on. We continue to cherish the great gift of who they were and continue to be in our lives. We all have our own individual ways of keeping those memories alive. For some, it is by visiting a grave to say a silent prayer or place fresh flowers. For others, it is writing their name on a list of our dead in our church; the lighting of a candle, glancing at a photograph on a mantelpiece; a few quiet moments in prayer or thanksgiving as memories of happier times come flooding back; the shedding of tears when no one can see. All those memories are part and parcel of the broad landscape of our lives. In our 'remembering', we draw comfort and consolation in the fulsome belief that our loved ones still live on beyond the confines of the grave. In the words of the book of Wisdom: "they are in the loving embrace of God and no torment shall ever touch them".

As we place our 'Remembrance Tree', in our Sanctuary in St Patrick's Church, for November 2021, we do so to honour those from our parish community who have died over the past year. We have a Remembrance Service at 7.30pm for the next two Thursdays. We will also be inviting their families to our 'November Mass' in St. Patrick's Church, Glenamaddy on Thursday 25th November. If you can't join us in church please tune into local radio 106.4fm.

A REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

will take place at 7.30pm on Thursday next in Glenamaddy Church. 'Earth has one Gentle Soul Less, Heaven has one Special Angel More' We will remember all aspects of loss from depression, sickness, companionship, isolation, job, a loved one....please join us.
