Just a Thought:

My life is a gift of God, given not in years, but a day at a time.

Today is the day the Lord has made for me, and he plans it to be the most important day of my life.

Yesterday is gone, never to return and tomorrow and all that it holds is still secret.

Only today is mine and on this day,

I offer my life to God with all my prayers, works, joys and sufferings.

Dear Lord, receive my gift graciously!

19th Sunday, B. John 6:41-51.

Elijah has had enough. It seems like too much effort to carry on. We can feel the same way in our Christian journey at times. "Lord, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it. Therefore will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone." (Thomas Merton).

'I am the bread of life'. O gracious God, you invite us to come and eat at your table, to be filled and nourished by your saving love. Cleanse our minds and hearts of all that holds us back from accepting and being transformed by your love.

LGFC U12 girls semi-final v Eire Og Galway in Glenamaddy GAA pitch this Sunday 8th at 3.30pm. Support appreciated.

Prayer for Grandparents

God of love, we thank you for our wonderful grandparents. They bring such joy and happiness into our lives. Thank you for all the special times that we have with them. Please watch over them, protect them and care for them now. May they know your goodness and love always.
