Prayer on the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Almighty and everlasting God,
 You have taken up body and soul into the heavenly glory
 the Immaculate Virgin Mary,
 Mother of Your Son:
 Grant, we beseech You, that, ever intent upon heavenly things, we may be worthy to be partakers of her glory.
 Through Jesus Christ Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
 One God, forever and ever.
 Amen.

Thought for The Week

Keep your eye steadily fixed on God, draw from His infinite source of inspiration and strength, and you will find that you are capable of much more that you thought you were.

For everything there is a season, and
A time for every matter under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die.
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and
A time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and
A time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to tear, and a time to sew; A time to keep silence,
and a time to speak.
A time for war, and a time for peace.
A time to love, and a time to hate;

extract from The Book of Ecclesiastes

Reflection

The Summer Day:

Who made the world?

Who made the swan and the black bear?

Who made the grasshopper?

This grasshopper I mean the one who has flung herself out on the grass, the one who is eating sugar out of my hand, who is moving her jaws back and forth instead of up and down who is gazing around with her enormous and complicated eyes. Now she lifts her pale forearms and thoroughly washes her face. Now she snaps her wings open and floats away. I don't know exactly what a prayer is. I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass, how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields, which is what I have been doing all day. Tell me, what else should I have done? Doesn't everything die at last and too soon? Tell me what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life.

Mary Oliver

Humour:

A burglar entered a poor minister's house at midnight, but was disturbed by the awakening of the minister when he entered his room. Drawing his weapon, the burglar said 'If you stir you are a dead man, I'm hunting for your money'. 'Let me get up and turn on the light,' said the minister, 'and I'll hunt with you!'
