Reflection

I like what I see

The father knocks on my door seeking a home for his Son.
Rent is cheap, I say. I don't want to rent, I want to buy, says God.
I'm not sure I want to sell, but you might come in to look around.
I think I will, says God. I might let you have a room or two.
I like it, says God. I'll take the two.

You might decide to give me more some day. I can wait, says God.
I'd like to give you more, but it's a bit difficult.

I need some space for me. I know, says God, but I'll wait,
I like what I see. Hmm.

Maybe I can let you have another room.

I really don't need that much.

Thank you, says God. I'll take it, I like what I see. I'd give you the whole house, but I'm not sure.

Think on it, says God; I would not put you out. Your house would be mine and my son would live in it. You'd have more space than you ever had before. I don't understand that, say I.

I know, says God, but I can't tell you about that.

You have to discover it for yourself.

That can only happen if you let me have the whole house.

A bit risky, I say. Yes, says God, but try me. I'm not sure.

I'll let you know. I can wait, says God, I like what I see
