A Poem for November

But once I pass this way, and then no more. But once – and then the silent door swings on its hinges;
Opens.... closes, and no more I pass this way.
So, while I may, with all my might, I will give sweet comfort and delight, to all I meet upon the pilgrim Way.
For no one travels twice the great Highway,
That climbs through darkness up to light,
Through night and day.

John Oxenham
