INSTALLATION OF Most Reverend Francis Duffy as Archbishop of Tuam will take place on Sunday 9th January at 2.30p.m. Most Reverend Francis Duffy will be installed as Archbishop of Tuam in the Cathedral of the Assumption. He succeeds Archbishop Michael Neary who was appointed Archbishop of Tuam on the 17th January 1995. This will be a joyous and historic occasion for the people of the Archdiocese of Tuam and for Archbishop Francis himself. While it was hoped to celebrate the Installation with as many people as possible in attendance, and at the same time respecting the public health advice and the current official guidelines, this is now not possible due to the widespread circulation of the coronavirus in the community. It will be live streamed on <https://www.tuamparish.com/web-cam>. We wish Reverend Duffy all the best and we also wish a happy retirement to Archbishop Michael Neary.

A HUGE THANK YOU to everyone who participated, donated and supported the Glenamaddy Tractor Run. A total of €10,100 was raised for Galway Hospice. A special thank you to everyone who helped in any way possible and also to Darragh Geraghty for the use of the Equestrian Centre. It would not be possible without everyone's support.

REFLECTION

Neither John nor Jesus invented baptism. It had been practiced for centuries among the Jews as a ritual equivalent to our Confession. Until the fall of the Temple in 70 AD, it was common for Jewish people to use a special pool called a Mikveh -- literally a "collection of water" -- as a means of spiritual cleansing, to remove spiritual impurity and sin. Men took this bath weekly on the eve of the Sabbath; women, monthly.

Converts were also expected to take this bath before entering Judaism. The Orthodox Jews still retain the rite. John preached that such a bath was a necessary preparation for the cataclysm that would be wrought by the coming Messiah. Jesus transformed this continuing ritual into the one single, definitive act by which we begin our life of Faith. In effect, He fused His Divine Essence with the water and the ceremony.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY 18th –25th JANUARY

This Week we have celebrated The Feast of Incarnation and Epiphany. The Magi have sometimes been seen as a symbol of the world's diversity – different religions and cultures – that comes to pay homage to the Christ-Child.

The story might therefore represent the unity of all created that God desires. The Magi travel from far-off countries, and represent diverse cultures, yet they are driven by the same hunger to see and know the new-born king and are gathered into the little house in Bethlehem in the simple act of giving homage. In this we can find a metaphor for Christian unity: that is, of different Christian peoples drawn together in their common search to recognise Christ, to know him and to worship him and witnessing to wider need for unity and to overcome injustice.

Spend time with your elders, not everything can be found on Google.
