"In the name of the Father..."

Trinity Sunday invites us to consider the significance of what we do and say when we make the sign of the cross. From the youngest infant to the oldest pensioner we are so familiar with the actions that often their meaning is overlooked.

"In the name of the Father" is said as we touch our foreheads – this is to symbolise that God is present in our brain and in our thought processes – we know God.

"And of the Son" is said as we touch our chest – this is to symbolise that God is present in our heart and in our feelings – we love God.

"And of the Holy Spirit" is said as we touch our shoulders – this is to symbolise that God is present in our labours and our work – we serve God.

As we make the sign of the cross today may we remember and pray for whoever it was who helped us first learn to bless ourselves. May they be rewarded for their gifts to us.

"The Suitcase"

A man was dying, and when he realized it, he saw God coming closer with a suitcase in his hand.

- God said: All right son, it's time to go.
 - Surprised, the man responded: Now? So soon? I had a lot of plans...
 - I'm sorry, but it's time to go.
 - What do you have in that suitcase? The man asked.
 - God answered: Your belongings.
 - My belongings? You mean my things, my clothes, and my money?
 - God answered: Those things were not yours
 - they belonged to the earth.
 - Is it my memories? The man asked.
 - God answered: Those never belonged to you they belonged to Time.
 - Is it my talents?
 - God answered: Those were never yours; they belonged to Circumstances.
 - Is it my friends and family?
 - God answered: I'm sorry they were never yours; they belonged to the path.
 - Is it my body?
 - God answered: That was never yours; it belonged to the dust.
 - Is it my soul?
 - God answered: No, that is mine.
 - Full of curiosity the man took the suitcase from God and opened it, only to find out the suitcase was empty.
 - With tears coming down his cheek, the man said: I never had anything???
 - God answered: That is correct.
 - Only the moment you lived was yours. Life is just a moment, a moment that belongs to you. Enjoy life. Material things and everything else that you fought for stay here.
- ~ YOU CANNOT TAKE ANYTHING WITH YOU
