Breaking through the powers of darkness
Bursting from the stifling tomb
He slipped into the graveyard garden
To smell the blossom air.
Tell them, Mary, Jesus said,
That I have journeyed far into the darkest deeps
I've been, in nights without a star.
Tell them, Mary, Jesus said,
That fear will flee my light
That though the ground will tremble
And despair will stalk the earth I hold them firmly by the hand
Through terror, to new birth.
Tell them, Mary, Jesus said,
The globe and all that's made
Is clasped to God's great bosom
They must not be afraid.
For though they fall and die, He said
And the black earth wrapped them tight
They will know the warmth
Of God's healing hands
In the early morning light.
Tell them, Mary, Jesus said,
Smelling the blossomed air
Tell my people to rise with me
To heal the earth's despair.
