Dear Parishioners,

As I leave for my holidays in India, I carry with me a heart full of gratitude for each one of you. Thank you sincerely for your kindness, generosity, support, and the many ways you enrich our parish community. Your encouragement and faith mean more to me than words can express.

During my time away, I humbly ask you to remember me and my family in your prayers. Be assured that I will also keep all of you in my prayers, asking the Lord to bless you with good health, peace, and a deepening of faith.

With heartfelt thanks and every blessing.
