*I am the way that stretches out before -
I am the journey you are on,
I am the present moment that you tread -
I am the next place that you stand upon.*

*I am the air you breathe -
I am every part and of the whole,
I am the love you cannot fall beyond -
I am the inner silence of your soul.*

*I am the question that you ask -
I am the answer that you crave,
I am the reality of truth,
I am the ever-living thread that leaps the grave.*

*I am all time in now,
I am this minute to begin,
I am the one that you have always known;
I am the peace that you may dwell within.*

Glenamaddy & District Residents & Traders Association

Meeting Thursday night next, June 28th, at 9pm
in the GAA meeting rooms.
Agenda: Summer Festival. All welcome.

Listen to the silence ...
it has much to say.

A child's burden

My mother's name is worry,

In summer, she worries about water;
In winter, she worries about coal briquettes,
And all year long she worries about rice.

In day time, my mother worries about living;
At night, she worries for her children,
And all the day long she worries and worries.

Then, my mother's name is worry.
My father's name is drunken frenzy.
And mine is tear and sigh.

*A little more kindness,
A little more creed,
A little more giving,
A little less greed.*

*A little more "We",
A little less "I",
A little more laughter,

*A little more flowers,
On the pathway of life,
And fewer on graves
At the end of the strife.*
