Glenamaddy Ladies Football Club

Our U-14 girls did themselves proud in the County Féile—they reached the final for the second year running and lost out to a very strong Claregalway team in the final. Well done to all the girls involved and the team management of Patricia Keady, Mary Fahy and Cliona Gannon. We wish Aisling Hegarty a speedy recovery from her injury which she received in the final. Thanks to Martina Gibbons and Heneghan's Super Valu for sponsoring all the food for our presentation day; also, Mary Pettit and the Community Centre committee for the use of the facility.

Bitter Sweet Waltz

Some say that life's an illusion,
Who knows what's false or what's true
The distant horizon can be quite surprising
When finally the journey is through.
In all of its glories and all of its faults
It seems life is a bitter sweet waltz.

Some say the grass is much greener
Once you get over the fence.
If that's your objective beware of perspectives
Illusions don't always make sense.
In all of its glories and all of its faults
It seems life is a bitter sweet waltz.

You never know what you are holding
'til it starts slipping away.
Your best protection is show some affection
To those who are with you today.
In all of its glories and all of its faults
It seems life is a bitter sweet waltz.

ConTempo String Quartet come to Glenamaddy

The East Galway School of Music present an evening with the Con Tempo String Quartet in the Town Hall Theatre on Saturday May 12th at 8pm.

They will perform a selection of popular classical pieces and will be joined by senior students Audrey Donohue, David Forde and Derek McConville.

This is a wonderful opportunity for music lovers to enjoy the sounds of this renowned string quartet. Also, the quartet will host an afternoon workshop open to all string players. For more information contact Mary-Jo Fitzpatrick at 094-9659950

S.O.F.T. Ireland wish to express sincere thanks for the most generous donation of €3080 to their organisation in memory of Ellis Haslam. The money raised will be used to assist in supporting babies born with Edwards and Patau's Syndrome and their families. Thanks, also, to the teachers and pupils of Ardeevin N.S. who donated €203—the proceeds of their recent jumble sale—to S.O.F.T.

Encouragement

If with pleasure you are viewing
Any work that I am doing
If you like me or you love me
Tell me NOW!
Don't withhold your approbation
Till the Father makes oration
And I lie with snowy lilies
O'er my brow.
For no matter how you shout it,
I won't care too much about it
I won't see how many tear drops you have shed.
If you think some praise is due me,
Now's the time to give it to me
For I cannot read my tombstone
When I'm dead!

Divilly's Welcome Inn
Glenamaddy

Sat.29th: John Fleming & Son
All are welcome

*Gracious God,
I thank you for the assurance that you will never be far from me.
Help me to find the path you have set out for me and give me the courage to walk it.*
