Prayer from Ghana

Oh Lord,
You are the bread of those who have nothing.
Be with those
Who suffocate with injustice.
Be with those who have everything:
Big cars, beautiful houses
And lots of money.
Lord, they are more content than we!

Be with those who are hungry
And with those who push away
Plates still half-full of food.
We are all your children.
We need you.
We need your love
So that we can
Love each other.
Bless us and our brothers
And sisters the world over, Amen.

Mannion's furniture—well worth a visit.

Our greatest fear is not that we are inadequate.
Our greatest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure.

It is our light, not our darkness, that frightens us.

We ask ourselves, "Who am I to be brilliant, talented, fabulous?"

Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God.

Your playing small doesn't help the world.

"We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us."

As we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give others permission to do the same.

As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.
